

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, our NAHB affiliated association staff work to direct, develop, and collaborate with all members of their local or state associations and to communicate issues and initiatives on behalf of their members and the industry;

WHEREAS, association staff are entrusted with the responsibilities of enriching membership and providing a forum for builder association executives to further their professional development through training, networking and education;

WHEREAS, association staff serve as advocates for consumers and home builders, supporting and collaborating with members and the community at-large to keep local associations pivotal in the efforts of the Federation;

WHEREAS, HBA Staff Appreciation Week is an opportunity to recognize the hard work of our local and state associations and the importance of HBA staff in ensuring that every member has access to resources provided at a local, state and national level;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the National Association of Home Builders recognizes HBA Staff Appreciation Week, in the second week of November in the year two thousand twenty-four.
